B. PLANNING & CONSTRUCTION

No records of construction have been found. According to C. W. Kellenbarger, Aircraft Maintenance Supervisor at Don Scott Field, the structure was erected as a WPA project in late 1942. It consisted of three small buildings moved from the main campus and combined for use as an office and tool shed.

C. DEMOLITION

Board of Trustees on May 13, 1965 authorized demolition of this building to clear site for Building 285.

Plans for Building 285 dated June 1, 1965 show this building with notation that its removal was not in the contract for the construction Of Building 285.

Contracts for the construction of Building 285 were not awarded until May 12, 1966.

Therefore, the demolition of H 909 was probably between June 1, 1965 and May 12, 1966.
